Be Aware!

Here are a couple tips to help you become aware of fraud and help to avoid it:

Know who you are dealing with

If you are not sure the charity or company you are dealing with is legitimate contact your Better Business Bureau.

Guard your personal information

Be especially careful if a business you already do business with calls you asking for information that they would already have.

Don't believe promises of easy money

Often if something seems too good to be true, it usually is too good to be true.

We will share more tips with you throughout the year, to help you always Be Aware!

On Your Way to Saving!
Want to contribute to a 2020 IRA & Save on Taxes?

There is still time! We are here to help!
