Message to Members

Dear Members,

This year, we have decided to help our members REACH FOR THE STARS and accomplish their dreams. By the looks of things some of them have already started. Lynette Garret, Maggie Sumney and Gil Fernandez, all current or previous credit union volunteers, retired from the City on February 28th, 2014. We wish them well and hope their retirement dreams come true.

Maggie Sumney and Gil Fernandez*

If you were unable to join us for our 63rd Annual Meeting and didn't get your chance to share a dream we've helped you attain or something you're still dreaming of, stop by and write your dream on a star. We want to help.

In an effort to help you save money, back by popular demand we will be hosting our 2nd Annual Car Sale May 2, 3 and 4th, 2014. You will find us on-site at Sunset Chevrolet, Buick, GMC along with food and a $500.00 raffle. But, if you're not in the market for one of these vehicles, we will honor our special rates no matter where you shop on these dates. So, whatever you're in the market for; a new or used car, truck, motorcycle or boat don't hesitate. Come on in or call one of our loan specialists and get pre-approved so you can shop with confidence.

If you need assistance setting your goals to reach your dreams, let us know. We want to help. I can think of nothing more important than our credit union helping our members REACH FOR THE STARS.

Sincerely,
Elaine Karins
President
